BREEDING SWINE DIVISION

1. Animals eligible to be exhibited in the Commercial Class are maternal gilts (crossbreds or genetic lines).

2. At the time of entry, all purebred animals entered in this department, including pigs under six (6) months old, must be properly named and recorded in the Herd Book of the breed association to which they belong.

3. All Berkshire swine must be registered by the American Berkshire Association (ABA), P. O. Box 2436, 1769 US 52 West, West Lafayette, IN 47996. Said registration paper must be presented at time of check in.

4. The ABA is the only Berkshire swine registry recognized by the National Association of Swine Records (NASR) and the National Pedigreed Livestock Council (NPLC).

5. An exhibitor of more than one purebred breed must have been an active member of each breed association for more than ninety (90) days immediately prior to the show.

5. All animals to be exhibited must be properly checked in with show management prior to the show. Registration papers for purebreds must be presented at check-in.

6. All animals exhibited must carry ear notches or ear tags identifying litter to which they belong.

7. All animals exhibited must be January, February or March pigs. Purebred breeding swine will be broken into classes based on age.

Commercial breeding swine will be broken into classes based on weight. Exhibitors of Commercial breeding swine will need to turn in a weight card declaring weights.

8. All hogs to be eligible to compete must have been owned by the exhibitor for at least sixty (60) days prior to the opening day of the Kentucky State Fair. For purebred animals, the day of purchase shall be construed to be the date transfer is recorded with the Record Association.

9. All animals placing will be checked for ear notches or ear tags and registration papers will be required for purebred animals.

10. All purebred pigs shown must be registered in the Record Associations of the breeds to which they belong, and must be in the name of the exhibitor. All purebred pigs must exhibit typical breed characteristics. Exhibitors must be prepared to show certificates of registry and proper transfer for all purebred animals they are showing.

11. Any animal that, in the opinion of the judge, is being shown out of class shall not be awarded a prize.
